Principal Helmsman*

* Handicap skippers are required to list a principal helmsman on their rating certificates. While it may not be possible for any one person to steer a boat throughout a race, the principal helmsman is that person who is steering at the start of a race and on upwind legs. In a day race, any yacht which is started or steered by someone other than the principal helmsman is in violation of the N.E.M.A. Race Rules and subject to disqualification.
